

Direct Care Curriculum

Update on Pilot Projects

July 20, 2007

Summary of Activities:

Two Train-the-Trainer workshops were held with a total of 41 participants. Pima Community College has offered two courses for college credit, and several providers in Maricopa County are using the Principles of Caregiving materials for training of employees. The evaluation report for fiscal year 2007 activities will be available in October 2007. Activities for the coming year are currently being planned.

Train-the-Trainer Workshops

Participants	41
Provider agencies represented	27

Training of Direct Care Workers

Total number of workers trained*	137
By County:
Maricopa County	103
Pima County	34
By Organization
College certificate	34
In-agency training	103
Total number of classes*
College courses	2
In-agency trainings	11

*The length and scope of trainings can vary.

Organizations Training with “Principles of Caregiving”

Number of agencies	4
Number of colleges	1

Training Materials “Principles of Caregiving”

Each module consists of an instructors manual, a student manual, and a slide presentation.

Core Module	complete
Aging and Physical Disabilities Module	complete
Developmental Disabilities Module	complete
Dementia Module	content finished; needs final editing